Rampart SUPPLY

a division of CREGGER COMPANY INC.

The Rampart Way...

- Knowledgeable staff helping to keep your project on track with the right products and expertise when you need it.
- Friendly, same day delivery
- 3 warehouses with over 40 trucks serving Colorado
- Deep and diversified local inventory with over 60,000 in-stock SKU's
- Over 98% fill rate on stock items
- 24 hour emergency pager service
- Family owned and operated with 50+ years of demonstrated service excellence
- Always working harder for you...

Since its humble beginnings, the Rampart Supply name has been linked to integrity, passion, and a strong sense of community. As a family owned and operated company, philanthropy and community involvement have long been a staple of Rampart Supply's core values. They have generously supported numerous local non-profit organizations and charities as they feel it is essential to give back in order to help strengthen their community and local economy.

Fast and Friendly Delivery

Family Owned and Operated

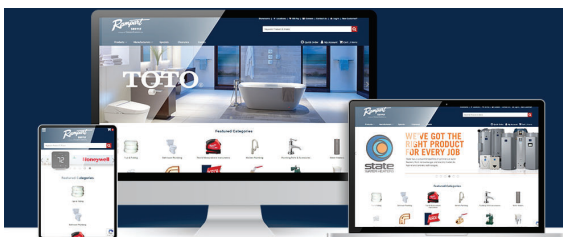

Always Working Harder for You!

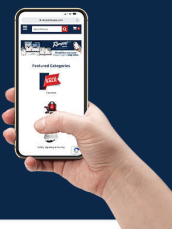

Rampart's attentive approach to customer service and commitment to excellence have helped forge extraordinary relationships within their industry and their communities. They recognize the need for a personal touch and are committed to adding value to each and every interaction. Rampart customers rest-assured that they not only get the best products in the industry; they get the best products supported by passionate people who strive to go above and beyond, always working harder for you.

In half a century in business, Rampart Supply has progressed into a local leader in the plumbing and heating supply industry. From its inception as a small plumbing supply house with 3 employees, Rampart Supply has grown into a company with 3 branches, over 500,000 square feet of stocked shelves, 3 stunning showrooms, and more than 250 employees serving the great state of Colorado.

The Rampart story has evolved over the last 50 years; however, a constant has remained at the heart of their business model: invest in what matters. They recognize their business exists, above all, because of their focus on recruiting and retaining the very best people, committing to a deep and diverse local inventory, and doing right by their customers, suppliers and their community. With their innate passion for excellence and a company culture based on one enduring intangible – relationships, Rampart Supply looks to the future with optimism and excitement!
